Festive fun...
Gerard Butler
voices St Nick

NEW

Ho, ho, ho!

Hollywood star Gerard Butler on being a singing St Nick in a new festive animation...

Comic creations... St Nick visits Wonderland

THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS IN WONDERLAND

From Fri 13 Dec, 8.20am & 3.30pm, Sky Premiere Animation

Q This animated movie is a festive mash-up of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and poem A Visit from St. Nicholas and sees Santa visit Wonderland. How was it to voice St Nick?

A I was over the moon! I've looked up to Santa since I was a kid, and I thought one day I'd like to make a biopic of the man. I think he'd be happy with it. We've tried to contact him but he's hard to get hold of. Seriously, it was a blast.

Q Emilia Clarke plays The Queen of Hearts while Bridgerton's Simone Ashley is Alice and Mackenzie Crook is the White Rabbit. Did you enjoy working with them?

A Sadly, I didn't get to work with them. I was just in my booth doing my thing. Emilia's fantastic in this. All the actors were a fun bunch who did a great job.

Co-stars... Mackenzie Crook (above) and Simone Ashley

Q There are lots of songs in the movie. Did you enjoy the singing?

A Yes, I did. The songs are all fantastic. There are showtime numbers, cabaret songs, pop songs, weird, trippy songs and I've even got a rap in there, so both Eminem and Jay-Z had better watch out!

Q What do you think makes this Christmas animation so magical?

A These two fairy tales live inside us from when we were kids and it's a chance to revisit that. The animation means the story has now come to life. It's the best, weirdest and most fun take on the holiday season.

Q How does voicing an animation compare to starring in a live-action movie?

A It's a little more difficult than you imagine. You are trying to hit all the right beats, and you still want to stay with the musicality as well as getting colour into the songs. But the balance worked perfectly.

Q What's your favourite Christmas film?

A It's A Wonderful Life is great. But the movie that I can remember watching every Christmas was The Wizard of Oz. It was amazing. See review, page 29

Film favourite... The Wizard of Oz

But when the cops delve further, they uncover dark undercurrents of racism and Sally's troubled past...

'Both family politics and local politics seep into the case and there's more going on under the surface,' reveals Sam.

'DI Roscoe has a keen eye for investigation and looks up to Dalgliesh, but Dalgliesh sometimes wrong-foots him!'

★ Mark Gatiss (right) stars as eccentric bookshop owner turned sleuth Gabriel Book in U&Alibi's post-war crime drama Bookish, which follows Gabriel as he helps the police solve cases by consulting the books in his shop. Polly Walker and Daniel Mays are also among the cast.

★ Martin Clunes (right) stars in ITV1 drama Out There. He plays a farmer whose home and family life are threatened by an escalating crime wave caused by urban gangs infiltrating the British countryside for their drug operations.

★ The second run of South Korean thriller Squid Game is on Netflix. Set three years after he won Squid Game, Gi-hun (Lee Jung-jae, left) once again dives into the life-or-death game – this time to find the people behind it and end their deadly sport.

★ Supernatural thriller The Rig returns to Prime Video for a new six-part series – this time set in the Arctic Circle. There, the surviving crew of the Kinloch Bravo must deal with new threats. Emily Hampshire and Martin Compston star.

★ Horror comedy Get Away on Sky Premiere is set in Sweden and follows a family's holiday to an island, which turns out to be inhabited by a serial killer. What follows are twisted surprises and lots of gore, with a cast including Nick Frost (left) and Aisling Bea.

★ Join Lang Lang, Claudia Winkleman and Mika at London's Battersea Power Station for The Piano at Christmas on C4. Watch stars from Series 2 perform seasonal favourites including O Holy Night.

WOLF HALL: THE MIRROR AND THE LIGHT
Sunday, 9pm, BBC1 Drama

Following the death of his beloved third wife, Queen Jane Seymour, after the birth of their son, Edward, King Henry VIII's search for a new bride continues.

Lord Privy Seal Thomas Cromwell (Sir Mark Rylance) has been scouring the royal courts of Europe for a suitable candidate and believes he's found the perfect match in German princess Anne of Cleves (Dana Herfurth).

Yet their potential union gets off to a bad start when Henry (Damian Lewis) disguises himself in a bid to surprise her upon their first meeting and things don't go exactly to plan...

'Cromwell and his adviser Thomas Wriothesley are like, "Are you sure this is a good idea?"' says Harry Melling, who plays Thomas Wriothesley. 'But, of course, eventually he does do it, because he's King Henry.'

The investigation into Annie Bett's murder reaches a gripping conclusion in this week's Shetland finale.

Following an alarming revelation from a local, Ruth (Ashley Jensen) and Tosh (Alison O'Donnell) have a suspect whose movements on the night of Annie's death appear incriminating – but as the detectives bring this person in for an interview, will they draw out a confession?

'When we get to the finale, we've ruled out certain elements and the focus narrows down,' says Alison. 'But even within the final episode, there are still reveals and twists. Hopefully we'll keep people guessing until the final moments!

The investigation has been a particularly difficult one for Tosh, who was a friend of Annie's and who has had to interrogate many of her own social circle in the search for the killer – which has also put strain on her relationship with partner Donnie (Angus Miller). But Alison believes this experience will only make her character stronger.

Stepping up

'As an actor, it's nice having something more personal running alongside the procedural,' she says. 'You have to play all these different emotional beats at once, which is really challenging, but satisfying.'

'In these last two series, we've seen a real maturation from Tosh. When we first met her, she was such a rookie; very green, learning on the job and getting things wrong. It's been such a journey, and now she's becoming herself, growing in confidence and trusting her instincts.'

KIRSTIE'S HANDMADE CHRISTMAS
Monday-Friday, 5.30pm, C4 Factual

There are magical creations to marvel at and a majestic new Scottish location as Kirstie Allsopp returns with a new series of her show that sees 16 talented crafters go head-to-head.

And there are some major changes in store this year...

Celebrity judges

'For the first time, one of the crafters will be crowned Christmas Crafting Champion,' says Kirstie. 'The victor of each show from Monday to Thursday earns a place in the final on Friday. It makes it extra hard because they each have very different skill sets but they stepped up to the plate magnificently.'

Other changes include celebrity judges... 'Kirsty Wark is the judge in the opening episode. She was brilliant,' continues Kirstie. 'It was really important to me that we had celebrities who had a genuine passion for crafting and who are properly engaged with Christmas.'

Other judges are presenter Konnie Huq, The Great Pottery Throw Down's Rich Miller, former fashion stylist Sabrina Grant and The Great British Sewing Bee favourite Patrick Grant.

The opener sees the crafters challenged to create a Christmas tree with wow factor and among the designs are intricate paper mice and a hand-sewn festive dinner!

'There's no way I'd be able to pick a winner, so I didn't envy the celebrities,' says Kirstie.

There's also a new HQ – Dumfries House in Scotland.

'It's a remarkable house that King Charles has restored,' explains Kirstie. 'It would be wonderful to get Queen Camilla as a judge because she's a very Christmassy person, but I think she's got better things to do!'

Double homicide!

The bodies are piling up for Daniel Mays' two detectives...

MOONFLOWER MURDERS

Saturday, 9.15pm, BBC1 Drama

Continuing his investigation into the killing of Hollywood star Melissa James, 1950s police officer Chubb, played by Daniel Mays, suddenly had another murder on his hands last week when prime suspect John Spencer collapsed and died after being questioned.

Amateur sleuth... Susan Ryeland

And Chubb's modern-day counterpart Locke, also played by Daniel, is about to have a new homicide on his hands in this week's penultimate episode of Anthony Horowitz's time-hopping whodunnit.

Fun roles

For Mays, reprising the roles of the officers he previously played in Magpie Murders proved doubly enjoyable! 'Chubb is very much

On the case... Atticus Pünd

the right-hand man to Atticus Pünd [Tim McMullan] and he's been thrown into the Melissa James investigation,' says Daniel. 'On the flip side, Locke is like a bear with a sore head, always close to anger, and quite a difficult character!' We saw last week how Locke threatened amateur sleuth Susan Ryeland (Lesley Manville) with arrest unless she stopped looking into the disappearance of Cecily MacNeil. And the two are set to butt heads again this week, as Susan keeps digging for clues.

'Locke is furious that Susan is back on his territory again,' says Daniel. 'So they have some heavy, two-handed scenes - he's a great character to play!'

THEN

Danny stars in comedy film A Sudden Case of Christmas. He plays Lawrence, who owns a hotel in the mountains of Italy. Each Christmas, he plays host to his extended family, but in the summer, he learns his daughter and her husband are divorcing and, worse still, he's been asked to break the news to their daughter Clare (Antonella Rose). Clare insists on having one last family Christmas together, in the middle of summer, and she and Lawrence hatch a plan to convince her warring parents to reconcile.

Stephen Mulhern and Holly Willoughby bring back a classic...

YOU BET!

Saturday, 8.15pm, ITV1 Entertainment

Back in the 1980s and 1990s, ITV game show You Bet! was a Saturday-night mainstay. And now, Holly Willoughby and Stephen Mulhern are stepping into the shoes of former hosts Bruce Forsyth, Matthew Kelly and Darren Day to bring back a revamped version of the classic show for two specials. 'I remember watching You Bet! as a kid, and I loved it,' says former This Morning presenter Holly. 'I remember being glued to the TV while watching a digger pick up six delicate eggs in its giant jaws and placing them on egg cups.' As with the original series, ordinary people claim they can do extraordinary things, such as memorising 150 names or identifying cacti using their tongues.

Predictions

This a panel of celebrities, this week featuring Alison Hammond, Rob Beckett, Harry Redknapp and Rosie Ramsey, must bet on whether they can achieve it. 'Some of the challenges are really nail-biting,' says Stephen. 'In one, a challenger is attempting to scale the outside of a multistorey car park to get to the top faster than a professional driver can drive up it. The climber slipped, the driver was almost hitting the posts, and we could hardly watch.' There's also terror for the celebrities, as the one with the lowest score across an episode must do a forfeit. 'The loser has to perform with the cast of a major West End musical totally unrehearsed,' explains Stephen. 'The results are truly spectacular.'

Glenn and Mack

Ring the changes!

Is Mack ready to move on from ex-fiancé Glenn?

RETURN TO PARADISE

Friday, 8pm, BBC1 Drama

Now back in Dolphin Cove, the one thing that DI Mackenzie Clarke seems to be struggling with more than solving murders is seeing ex-fiancé Glenn with his new partner, Daisy. It's a particularly tricky situation as Mack jilted Glenn at the altar six years earlier...

'It's no small thing to return to that, and Mack brings home with her a great sense of guilt,' reveals Anna Samson, who plays the detective.

But while Mack's come to terms with the fact that forensic pathologist Glenn (Tai Hara) has moved on, it still hurts when he declares he's planning to propose to Surf Club bartender Daisy (Andrea Demetriades) with the engagement ring he gave Mack – and he wants her to return it!

'Mack's pushing against all the emotions that being back home brings up – old places, memories and relationships,' explains Anna. 'She's trying to push them down, but they have a habit of coming back up!'

Missing links

Hiding her upset, Mack agrees to return the ring. There's just one problem – she can't find it!

She's forced to put the search on hold, however, to investigate the death of radical eco-activist Byron Jones, who was murdered while staging a climate protest. But who could have killed him when the key suspects were chained to a tree?

As Mack digs for clues, will she find her missing ring, too?

Making a murderer

Patrick Gibson plays a young Dexter Morgan in this prequel series showing his transition from student to serial killer...

Family... Sister Debra

Paramount+ Dexter: Original Sin

Available: Friday 13 December Genre: Drama
Season: 1 Eps: 10 (released weekly)

Dexter Morgan is one of TV's most unusual serial killers. In US crime series Dexter, which ran from 2006 to 2013, Michael C. Hall played the titular character whose victims were criminals who'd escaped the justice system. Dexter's job as a blood-spatter analyst for the Miami Metro Police Department meant he knew who to target and how to get away with killing them.

Prequel series Dexter: Original Sin now goes back to 1991 when he drops out of college and becomes an intern with the police. Before We Die star Patrick Gibson plays Dexter, who has had urges to kill from a young age. But his adoptive dad Harry (Christian Slater) helps him to channel his inner darkness into a code – which is to only kill bad people.

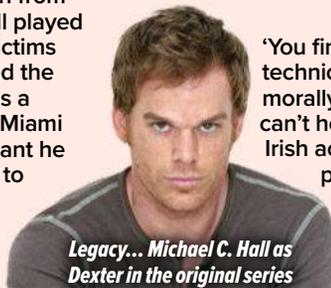

Conflicted

'You find this character who is technically doing something morally reprehensible, but you can't help but root for him,' says Irish actor Patrick. 'He's the perfect anti-hero.'

The cast also includes Molly Brown as Dexter's sister Debra, who later becomes a cop, Grey's Anatomy star Patrick Dempsey as homicide captain Aaron Spencer, Buffy the Vampire Slayer's Sarah Michelle Gellar as Dexter's boss, CSI chief Tanya Martin, and singer Christina Milian as detective Maria LaGuerta, a character who featured in the original series. Meanwhile, Michael C. Hall returns to voice Dexter's inner monologue.

'It still has that blend of comedy and fun with much darker, dramatic moments,' explains Patrick. 'The difference is that we see Dexter with that kind of natural awkwardness that comes in our younger years. It's his coming-of-age story, while battling these urges that are becoming more powerful than he can control.'

Lydia and Paul

NETFLIX No Good Deed

NEW

Available: Thursday 12 December Genre: Comedy Season: 1 Eps: 8

Friends star Lisa Kudrow and Ray Romano (Everybody Loves Raymond) feature in this dark comedy series as highly strung former concert pianist Lydia Morgan and her stressed-out, broke contractor hubby Paul. They're married empty nesters who decide to sell their LA home.

Three different families clamour to buy the dream Spanish-style villa, which they all think will solve their problems. However, Lydia and Paul must fight to hide the dark and dangerous secrets that linger within the house and they soon come to realise that the only way they'll escape their past is to finally face it.

Dead to Me's Linda Cardellini plays Margo, a social climber who is desperate to snap up the property, while Luke Wilson, Teyonah Parris, O-T Fagbenle, Abbi Jacobson, Poppy Liu and Denis Leary also star.

Genre: One-off documentary

Sir Elton John's first US tour in 1970 marked the start of an extraordinarily successful phase in his music career that would see him become a huge star on both sides of the Atlantic over the next five decades, wowing audiences with thrilling live shows, including sell-out performances at LA's Dodger Stadium to mark the end of his touring career.

But as Elton recalls in this new rockumentary, those professional highs were accompanied by crushing lows.

'There was an emptiness within me, and I didn't have anything apart from my success and drugs,' says the 77-year-old, now happily married to co-director David Furnish, with two sons. 'But everyone thought my life was perfect!'

Meddling Mitchell...

Nicola targets Phil as Sharon and Teddy become an item

Manipulative... Nicola (centre) has Phil (left), Sharon and Teddy in her sights

Teddy was fuming when his ex-wife Nicola pitched up, interfering with his new life and set-up with their sons Harry and Barney.

The bitterness between the exes is evident but is it all about hate or are feelings lingering?

Nicola's certainly not happy when she finds out Teddy and Sharon have now gone way past the flirting stage and are an item. Determined to separate them, Nicola reaches out to Phil, hoping he'll be furious, too.

She has no such luck. But Nicola's not a quitter and after the launch of her new bar, Harry's Barn (formerly Peggy's), she visits Phil to try to recruit him. Phil's not up for chit-chat about their exes and boots out nosy Nicola, who soon goes running to Sharon about what she's seen...

Nicola's new tactic works like a dream. Concerned Sharon heads over to No.55, where Phil tries to convince her that Nicola's peddling a story.

Meanwhile, with her rival out of the way, at the bar, Nicola gets in Teddy's ear about Sharon and ups the ante by telling her ex that she's changed and wants to reignite their marriage...

Fury... Sharon (centre) has a pop at Nicola

Whether Nicola gets anywhere remains to be seen but Sharon's furious about her meddling and lays into her in front of the whole Mitchell clan.

The messy saga doesn't sit well with Phil, who's trying to cover up how he feels about what's going on. With Sharon shackled up with his cousin and his other ex, Kat, back with Alfie, is the hardman hurting?

And can Jay get him talking?

Car-crash MYSTERY...

Secrets... Shona visits a hotel room and ends up badly hurt

When Debbie's flash new motor is totalled, the crime opens up a can of worms!

Debbie Webster isn't exactly flavour of the month in Weatherfield right now. Having hushed up her connection to the company that botched Bethany Platt's surgery, she's getting some serious heat. This week, Debbie's fancy new car is totalled. Has someone taken revenge? Bethany's boyfriend Daniel Osbourne appears to be the prime suspect. With his relationship on the brink as a result of Bethany's ongoing trauma, Daniel's already raging with Debbie when she almost clips his son Bertie in her motor. In the Rovers, Daniel runs into Debbie and loses it. He's given a mouthful by her protective brother Kev and gets sent home by concerned Daisy and Jenny. Later, however, Daisy sees Debbie's car tear down the street and smash into Seb Franklin's memorial garden. But who was driving? And does the same person later abandon it miles away, all burnt out? Danger In a twist of fate, Shona winds up connected to the murky incident. Having rowed with David, she pays a mysterious visit to a hotel on the night Debbie's car is pinched – and returns home with a broken arm, having been almost run over! Although Shona goes on to tell Adam the truth about the incident, she lies to her husband, claiming she fell down the stairs. What's she covering up? Will she reveal all when baffled David finds her bloodstained coat stuffed in the bin? As the police work through the evidence, Kit pulls rank on Craig, closing down his efforts to re-examine the CCTV footage. What's Kit's problem? Is the shady copper tampering with evidence again? Survival... Cain's in trouble as Moira

recovers slowly

Cain confesses?

His guilt at cheating on Moira pushes the angry Dingle to the brink...

Moira's determined to look to the future now that she's had her brain tumour removed. But while she's trying to forge ahead, Cain's stuck in the past, regretting every second of what he did while his missus was having surgery.

Having feared his wife would die on the operating table, is Cain's much-regretted liaison with his sister-in-law Ruby going to see him lose Moira anyway?

This week, Moira's trying to organise a birthday party to thank Cain for his support. She's also about to get her pathology results and is expecting to have her husband by her side, but he's vanished.

'Caleb turns up at the house with Ruby, and Cain is looking at her like, "What the hell are you doing here?!"' explains Jeff Hordley, who plays Cain. 'Very quickly he Aggro...

Cain (right)
gets nicked

makes up an excuse that he's got to go and look at a car that's somewhere else in the country to get out of the situation of being in the same room as Ruby, Moira and Caleb.'

Despite her son Matty's offer of support, Moira's forced to face her terrifying appointment alone and is crushed to hear she needs to have radiotherapy.

When Cain finally surfaces, Moira's stunned to learn her husband is calling her from a police cell, having been locked up after an altercation with PC Swirling.

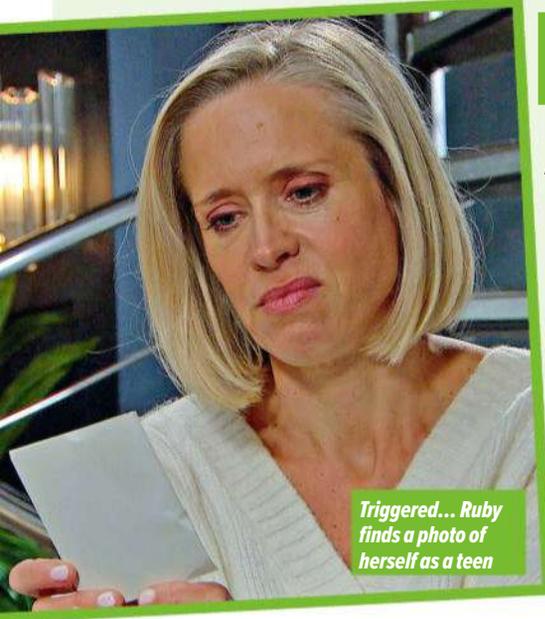

Cain's let off with a caution and heads to the allotments, where Liam finds him drunk. The GP then delivers him home to angry Moira.

'He's feeling terribly guilty about what he did and the way he did it,' says Jeff. 'The day Moira was in hospital for an operation, Cain went and slept with his sister-in-law, which is the worst. He knows if that comes out, nobody's going to have sympathy. Nobody.'

Will Cain unburden himself to Moira?

Ruby's past revealed

A flashback to her 16th birthday exposes a secret...

Ruby's life has been unsettled since her long-lost family members started reappearing one by one. Their shared past has clearly left the whole family scarred, each feeling as wronged as the other.

But while the Miligan mum has been keen to reconnect with her spiky daughter Steph, she's not interested in anything her father

Anthony has to say, warning Caleb and Steph not to be taken in by his act.

Teenage years

This week, the reason behind her outright hatred is revealed in a flashback to 1992, when the 16-year-old version of Ruby is having a birthday party, where she's getting on well with a lad called Rob...

In the present, with Anthony still seemingly a thorn in her side, Ruby fumes when her dad gets hold of the fact that Caleb cheated on her. In the face of her father's needling on the matter, Ruby defends their version of marriage to the hilt. And although she pretends to be batting off Anthony's questions, it's clear he's getting to her.

As Ruby manages to get closer to Steph, where does this leave the situation with her ambiguous dad?

Rylan Clark meets his idol Mariah Carey to talk about music – and that special festive hit...

Merry Mariah...
At her Christmas
album launch in 1994

Hearing those opening bars of Mariah Carey's All I Want for Christmas Is You means the festive season is just around the corner. And it's hard to believe the now iconic Yuletide hit, from Mariah's album Merry Christmas, is 30 years old.

To celebrate, superfan Rylan Clark sits down with the Grammy-winning artist to chat about the special song, which led to her being called the 'Queen of Christmas'.

'It was the first Christmas song I ever wrote,' reveals Mariah

MARIAH MEETS RYLAN

Saturday, 8.15pm, BBC2 Factual

in BBC2's Mariah Meets Rylan, filmed on location in Los Angeles. 'I was thinking of all the things I did want for Christmas and turned it into, if there's someone you love, it means more than all that stuff.'

'Although when I sing, "I won't even wish for snow," that's a lie. Of course, I do!'

Touch of glitz

Mariah recalls making the Merry Christmas album, and adding much-needed sparkle to the studio during recording sessions.

'I put lights everywhere and two trees up because I wanted it to be festive,' she says.

Rylan playfully tests Mariah's English accent and the pair discuss her life, jobs she had before becoming famous, her musical influences – including Stevie Wonder, Aretha Franklin and George Michael – and how she came up with the melody for her hit Hero on the toilet!

'Back then, that was the only time I was by myself, but that's where it came from,' says Mariah, who's enjoyed 19 US No.1s and is thrilled her festive hit is still going strong. 'It feels surreal but I'm thankful.'

Dangerous drylands

Only the toughest creatures can survive life in Asia's deserts...

ASIA

Sunday, 6.20pm, BBC1 Factual

There are vast arid deserts and dry grasslands in the heart of Asia, where everyday life is a battle for survival for those living in them.

'These deserts and dry grasslands are so hostile that they push life to the limit,' says Sir David Attenborough, who narrates this series.

In the punishing Gobi Desert, the film crew tracks down a Gobi bear, one of the rarest animals on Earth, searching for water.

'They're so rarely seen that they were thought to be a myth,' explains David. 'With numbers in their 30s, the survival of the Gobi bear is on a knife's edge.'

We also meet the Gobi's most fearsome hunter, the tiny, long-eared jerboa, which can hear when a grasshopper makes the slightest twitch.

'No other animal has longer ears relative to its body length,' says David of the bizarrely shaped creature.

There are Asiatic lions in India's Thar Desert that will do whatever it takes to find a meal, and Mongolian gazelles that risk life and limb to cross barbed-wire fences.

On the grasslands in Mongolia, Pallas's cats have a special way of catching rodents and Takhi wild horses battle hungry wolves once darkness falls.

'Life in the heart of Asia demands extraordinary resilience,' says David. 'The animals that live here are among Asia's great survivors.'

A pioneering experiment looks at the impact of smartphones on children...

Many of us would say we can't live without our smartphones, but with 50% of nine year olds in the UK now owning one, do we need to dial it down?

Fronted by Emma and Matt Willis, who have three children, this two-part C4 documentary examines the effect of phones on children's wellbeing.

Emma and Matt visit The Stanway School in Essex to take part in a groundbreaking social experiment. A group of Year 8 pupils have agreed to give up their devices for 21 days, allowing researchers to test their behaviour, cognitive abilities, attention and memory during the period, as well as sleep, anxiety, mood and loneliness. Will the digital detox have an effect?

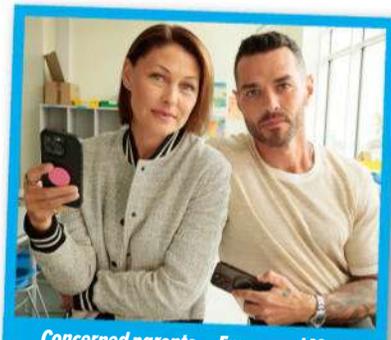

Talking points

'We're the parents of the demographic who are consumed by devices,' says The Voice UK host Emma, whose children are aged 15, 13 and eight. 'But if us grown-ups are addicted, how are kids meant to stand a chance?'

'They're communicating and socialising from their bedrooms through a device. While it might feel safe because they're at home, they've got every stranger in the world in the palm of their hand.'

The documentary is part of a nationwide conversation about whether the Government should consider a ban on smartphones for children under 14 or 16.

'It's a massive problem that's going to shape the way our kids develop,' says Matt. 'But it's going to take parents, schools, the Government and tech companies to come together, because it's all of our jobs to protect our kids from things that might negatively impact them.'

MATT BAKER: CHRISTMAS TRAVELS WITH MUM & DAD

Monday, 9pm, More4 Factual

Presenter Matt Baker has planned some surprise seasonal treats for his parents, Janice and Mike, in a twinkly festive two-part of Travels with Mum & Dad.

The Bakers' first port of call is Leith Harbour in Edinburgh, where Matt reveals they have been specially invited to explore the Royal Yacht Britannia!

'It's magical because all of the ship's decorations are up and we have special access,' says Matt. 'They even let us sit on the sofas!'

While making themselves at home, the Bakers learn about the ship's history. Since its launch in 1953, Britannia held a special place in the heart of Queen Elizabeth II, who used it for official engagements and private holidays until it was decommissioned in 1997.

'You can feel the presence of the late Queen and see why she felt so comfortable. Out at sea, away from all those eyes, she was able to relax,' explains Matt. 'It's been frozen in time - all the clocks are stopped at 3.01pm, when she left for the last time.'

In the Scottish capital, they also meet the city's only herd of Highland cattle and visit renowned tartan makers Kinloch Anderson.

'It warms my heart to give my parents these new memories and experiences,' says Matt, who takes them to a Victorian Christmas festival in Robin Hood's Bay in next week's episode. 'It's lovely to spend quality time together, especially with a sprinkle of Christmas on top!'

Tough times and joy

EastEnders star Rudolph Walker shares his festive memories with Anita Rani...

Nowadays, Rudolph Walker is best known as lovable charmer Patrick Trueman in EastEnders – a role he has played since 2001.

But, as he tells Anita Rani in the second episode of BBC1's My Life at Christmas, the launch pad for his career was ITV's controversial sitcom Love Thy Neighbour, which ran from 1972-76 and starred Rudolph and Jack Smethurst as warring neighbours.

'His story is an amazing one,' says Anita, who chatted to Rudolph about how his memories of Christmas reflect his life, career, family and faith. 'It's incredible – where he came from to who he is now, and how he feels about having been on our TV screens all this time.'

Born in Trinidad and Tobago, Rudolph, now 85, moved to the UK in the early 1960s to further his acting career but life wasn't easy.

'He told me a story of when he first came to Britain and went to church on Christmas Day. He wasn't welcomed into the congregation, whereas back home new attendees would have been welcomed. He felt isolated,' explains Anita. 'But then in his shared house, they sang carols together.'

There were also tough times in more recent years.

'He was pretty much homeless and destitute and this was while he was working on EastEnders but nobody knew,' says Anita. 'He really did open up and talked about some real sadness in his life. But he's wonderfully joyful. He's got two beautiful children and grandchildren, so he's going to be surrounded by family at Christmas.'

Josie Gibson gets us organised with her seasonal gift-guide show...

This Morning presenter Josie Gibson has Christmas all wrapped up in her new show, which is rammed with so many tips, tricks and hacks that even last-minute shoppers will feel like they are sorted!

'We all get so stressed about Christmas,' says Josie. 'Hopefully, this show can take the pressure off. Not only will it get you in the spirit, but it will give you some inspiration, too!'

The two-parter also features celebrity guests, from comic Jenny Eclair reviewing presents for grandparents to Made in Chelsea's Ollie Locke giving us his guide to the best gifts for toddlers. There's also an expert wrapper, a cocktail guru and a wine connoisseur sharing tips on the top celebrity wines.

'I was so impressed with Graham Norton,' says Josie. 'His wine is lovely!'

Josie is hosting her family for Christmas this year, but says some of her best Christmases have been spent with her This Morning pal Alison Hammond!

'Alison's hosted me a few times and her dinners are amazing because she does a bit of a Jamaican twist,' says Josie. 'We just turn up in our pyjamas. Nobody cares!'

GUY MARTIN: ARCTIC WARRIOR

Wed & Thu, 9pm, C4 (box set, Channel 4)

Guy Martin heads to the Arctic Circle in Norway to see if he has what it takes to become one of the Royal Marines' special operations commandos serving there. In the past, the former motorbike racer and mechanic has flown fighter jets and attempted to break the land-speed record on a motorcycle, but now he must prove his mettle in one of the harshest places on the planet. Guy joins the Marines at Camp Viking, where they are trained to deter attacks from Russia – a mere 200 miles away. The temperatures average -20C and Guy's first test sees him being dunked into a frozen lake with the risk of getting frostbite and hypothermia, or even having a heart attack. Guy must also trek in the snow, drive an all-terrain vehicle at night and direct military helicopters under fire.

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Leaving a body and a burning house, Bradley Cooper holes up at Willem Dafoe's carnival and develops his fraudulent mind-reading act while being drawn into the lives of Rooney Mara, Cate Blanchett and Toni Collette. Guillermo del Toro's gripping thriller looks fabulous and boasts a great a sting in its tail. (2021, 15)

Monday

Film4 Premiere

Rosaline ★★★★★

9.00pm-10.55pm, Film4, Romcom

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

This delightful romcom puts Rosaline (Kaitlyn Dever), a minor character in Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, centre stage. She gives Romeo (Kyle Allen) the cold shoulder, but wants him back after he falls for Juliet (Isabela Merced). Very funny with spot-on acting – and the way it's resolved is inspired. (2022, PG)

Tuesday

Netflix Premiere

Puss in Boots: The Last Wish ★★★★★

On demand, Netflix, Animation

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

In this sequel, our hero (voiced by Antonio Banderas) has just one of his nine lives left. He's in crisis in a cat sanctuary – until he gets a chance to restore his lives and legendary status... With the galloping action laced with hilarious gags, there's much to enjoy here. From Sun. (2022, PG)

Wednesday

Stan & Ollie ★★★★★

12.00m-t-1.40am, BBC1, Comedy drama
12.30am-2.05am Wales

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

As Laurel and Hardy, Steve Coogan and John C Reilly do a spot-on job of mimicking cinema's most beloved comedy duo's celebrated routines. The mood is bittersweet, though, as it focuses on the end of their career, when failing health and old grudges threaten to stymie their variety hall tour of 1953 Britain. (2018, PG)

Thursday

The Northman ★★★★★

9.00pm-11.45pm, Film4, Adventure

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Alexander Skarsgård's prince is on a merciless quest for revenge after his father (Ethan Hawke) is killed by his half-brother (Claes Bang), who claimed the throne and queen (Nicole Kidman). Adapted from the Icelandic tale that also inspired Hamlet, this is an impressive, entertaining adventure to be savoured. (2022, 15)

Friday

Netflix Premiere

Spellbound ★★★★★

On demand, Netflix, Animation

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

A princess (a pitch-perfect, perky Rachel Zegler) goes on a perilous quest to save her parents (Javier Bardem and Nicole Kidman) after they're turned into monsters – while keeping it secret. With memorable, hummable tunes and beautifully animation, this is pure nostalgia with an essential modern twist. On all week. (2024, U)

SKY CINEMA Premiere

The Night Before Christmas in Wonderland ★★★★★

Friday, 3.30pm-5.10pm, Sky Cinema Premiere, Animation

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

A deliciously lo-fi, old-school animated musical, in which St Nick (voiced cheerily by Gerard Butler), visits Wonderland, bumps into Alice (Simone Ashley) and must dodge the Christmas-hating Queen of Hearts (Emilia Clarke). Great fun for the young 'uns. (2024, U)

Saturday

The Addams Family ★★★★★
12.00noon-2.00pm, ITV1, Comedy

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

With a perfect deadpan cast, director Barry Sonnenfeld's comedy a superb outing for the vintage TV family. Raul Julia and Anjelica Huston are Gomez and Morticia, while Christopher Lloyd is Fester. (1991, PG)

The Holiday ★★★
3.15pm-5.55pm, Channel 5, Romcom

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Unlucky in love, US filmmaker Cameron Diaz and British writer Kate Winslet swap homes for the festive season. And soon Jude Law and Jack Black have caught their eyes in this cute, feel-good movie. (2006, 12)

The Importance of Being Earnest ★★★★★
1.45pm-3.15pm, BBC2, Comedy

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Oscar Wilde's classic comic play comes in for a sparkling treatment thanks to Rupert Everett, Colin Firth and Reese Witherspoon playing their roles to perfection. (2002, U)

Die Hard ★★★★★
9.00pm-11.40pm, Film4, Action

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

In his career-defining role, Bruce Willis is New York cop John McClane. In LA for Christmas to see estranged wife Bonnie Bedelia, he has to tackle thief Alan Rickman and gang who've taken over her office block. A perfect action classic. (1988, 15)

Henry V ★★★★★
3.15pm-5.25pm, BBC2, Historical

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Writer-director-star Kenneth Branagh's Shakespeare adaptation takes time to get going, but has patches of brilliance in the squalid Battle of Agincourt and in his courtship of Emma Thompson. The starry cast helps a lot, too. (1989, PG)

The Father ★★★★★
12.50am-2.35am, C4, Drama

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Oscar-winning Anthony Hopkins is phenomenal as a prickly OAP in denial over his mental frailty and Olivia Colman is similarly brilliant as his weary daughter. A must-see film that powerfully conveys the disorientation of dementia. (2020, 12)

Sunday

The Cruel Sea ★★★★★
1.00pm-3.05pm, BBC2, War

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

With a care-worn voice-over, Jack Hawkins is excellent as a Royal Navy skipper hunting Nazi U-boats throughout World War Two. It's a dignified, thoughtful and authentic-looking film, with moments of high tension. (1952, PG)

Dear Evan Hansen ★★★★★
9.00pm-11.05pm, BBC3, Musical

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

A toe-tapping film about mental health, loneliness and loss, this unusual musical based on the Broadway hit stars Ben Platt (reprising his stage role as anxious Evan), Julianne Moore and Amy Adams. (2021, 12)

Trolls ★★★★★
1.35pm-3.20pm, ITV1, Animation

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

This zingy musical will hit the spot for youngsters, though adults may find the auto-tuned bubbly pop and garish visuals too much. But the vocal talent (including Anna Kendrick, Justin Timberlake and James Corden) is fun. (2016, U)

Bonnie and Clyde ★★★★★
10.00pm-11.45pm, BBC2 (not NI), Crime classic

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Young tearaways Bonnie (Faye Dunaway) and Clyde (Warren Beatty) rob banks and murder their way across 1930s America in Arthur Penn's classic. The infamous ending is the very definition of 'overkill'. (1967, 15)

Night at the Museum ★★★★★
3.10pm-4.50pm, BBC1, Comedy

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

There is a fine show of comic talent, including Ben Stiller, Robin Williams and Steve Coogan, in this hilarious first comedy about the museum whose exhibits spring to life after hours. (2006, PG)

The Impossible ★★★★★
11.45pm-1.35am, BBC1, Drama

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Naomi Watts and Ewan McGregor star in this powerful tale based on the real-life experiences of a Spanish family caught in the devastating 2004 Indian Ocean tsunami. (2012, 12)

Monday

That Christmas ★★★★★
On demand, Netflix, Animation

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

A jolly animation based on three children's books by Richard Curtis. With a great voice cast including Brian Cox, Bill Nighy and Jodie Whittaker, the interlinked tales are a good balance of novelty and tradition. From 4 Dec. (2024, PG)

Hitman ★★★★★
9.00pm-11.00pm, GREAT! movies, Action

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

The bodies pile up in this stylish action film based on the videogame. Accused of killing a Russian politician, Timothy Olyphant's title character goes on the run with Olga Kurylenko's abused hooker. (2007, 15)

The Expendables 3 ★★★★★
10.00pm-12.20am, ITV4, Action

No Matter Her Age, She'll Always Be His Little Girl

Guiding her throughout her life, a father's love for his daughter grows with every passing year. 'The Love Between A Father And Daughter' celebrates this loving bond with a heartwarming sentiment and elegant designs any daughter would be proud to display. On the base, blue and silver pavé glitter swirl up into the sparkling glass globe, forming entwined pavé glitter hearts that symbolise father and daughter. With a gentle shake, silver hearts and glitter dance through this shimmering, water-filled globe. The silver base with blue hearts continues the colour palette and captures a loving message for daughters. This musical treasure includes a poem card and plays: 'Always In My Heart'.

Tube tragedy

Shoot to Kill: Terror on the Tube on C4 was a gripping docuseries about the killing of Jean Charles de Menezes. Following the London bombings of 2005, police made a split-second decision to shoot him dead, believing he was a terrorist. He was actually innocent and it was moving to see the officer reveal what happened on that fateful day, while expressing his remorse.

Joyce Wilson, County Derry

Wonderful wildlife

I'd like to say well done to the BBC for bringing us yet another superb wildlife series, Asia. The continent seems to contain just about every habitat imaginable, from tropical seas filled with wonderful fish to snowy mountains where endangered snow leopards hunt their prey. I've enjoyed every moment of the show, but seeing a wolf chase down antelope high up on the hostile Tibetan Plateau was

Majestic... BBC1's Asia has showcased tigers fascinating. The narration from Sir David Attenborough has been excellent, but the real stars are the camera crews who've captured such amazing footage.

M. Hughes, Buckinghamshire

Rant of the week...

Tested to the limit!

Why on Earth do they bother having the Skills Test on BBC1 show MasterChef: The Professionals? Hardly any of the contestants ever manage to do it. Is it just there so Monica Galetti and Marcus Wareing can show off their skills while Gregg Wallace salivates in the background?

Howard Edmunds, Leicester

Expert... Monica

McFlying high

McFly the 21st Birthday Party on ITV1 was a fantastic watch! It was wonderful to see the lads play their hits in front of a packed crowd and I was transported back to my youth as I danced along to their songs. I also enjoyed all the behind-the-scenes clips, which gave us a closer look at one of modern pop's most-successful bands. Here's to another 21 years!

K. Thomas, Cambridgeshire

Slow subtitles...

I'm extremely hard of hearing, so I use subtitles when I'm watching TV, which is a great help as quite a lot of the talking is a bit garbled and hard to understand.

I can appreciate that the subtitles are a bit behind with a live broadcast, but I can't fathom why there's often a lag with pre-recorded

Time delay... Graham Norton programmes. I really enjoy The Graham Norton Show on BBC1, but it's often spoiled by the subtitles showing up after 20 seconds!

Tony King, Cornwall

Three's a crowd

Love Triangle Australia on E4 was such a great show and full of larger-than-life personalities. It always surprised me when contestants said things that would clearly get them into trouble later.

I hope things work out for adorable comedian Nellie, who appeared to be abandoned by one of her ideal choices – and totally ignored by the other one. She deserves to become a massive star!

S. McCarthy, Glasgow

Time for a spookily fantastic celebration of a Disney classic!

In commemoration of the 30th anniversary of the animation, The Bradford Exchange is proud to present the specially designed, licensed and individually numbered Disney Tim Burton's The Nightmare Before Christmas Centrepiece Clock.

Licensed anniversary edition with moving Zero, melody and illumination

Expertly handsculpted from artist's resin and handpainted, this edition stands at 11 inches in height and, on the hour, a ghostly Zero moves around the illuminated clock to the movie melody of 'This Is Halloween'. For an extra-eery touch, the pumpkins, town hall and ghosts also glow with LED lights. The main centre of the precision Quartz movement clock is modelled upon that of the Town Hall, whilst Jack and Sally are featured before it, accompanied by a green Oogie Boogie in addition to Lock, Shock and Barrel within their bathtub.

Only from The Bradford Exchange. Don't miss out – order yours today!

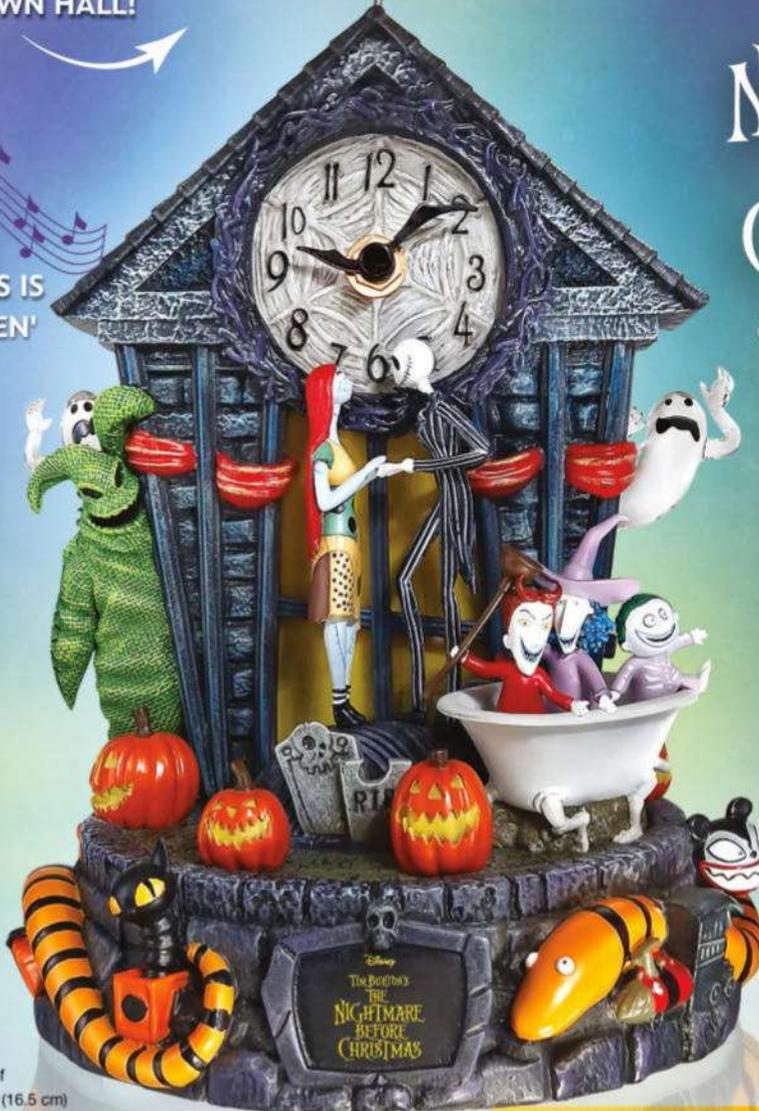

Individually numbered, this special anniversary desk clock edition is accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity and our famous 365-day money-back guarantee.
