'Smart gnome'
Norbot (right)
creates chaos

Wallace and Gromit are back this Christmas to battle their greatest foe...

Going CRACKERS!

PREVIEW ANIMATION

Wallace & Gromit: Vengeance Most Fowl

Christmas Day, BBC1

There are criminal capers, a garden gnome turned bad, and the return of TV's most-sinister penguin when the nation's favourite inventor, Wallace, and his long-suffering dog, Gromit, embark on a new family adventure on BBC1 this Christmas.

Directed by Nick Park and Merlin Crossingham, Vengeance Most Fowl is Wallace and Gromit's first feature-length film since The Curse of the Were-Rabbit in 2005 and sees the hapless inventor (voiced by Ben Whitehead, see panel, right) thrown into turmoil when he creates a 'smart gnome' called Norbot (Reece Shearsmith).

Wallace hopes that Norbot will help out with his gardening chores and odd-job business. But his plans go awry when the gnome runs amok after it's remotely hacked by villainous penguin Feathers McGraw, who first appeared in The Wrong Trousers 31 years ago.

'I'd had the idea of gnomes turning bad for more than a decade, but I could never work out what exactly made them bad,' reveals award-winning creator Park. 'Then it occurred to me, the question I get asked most from fans is, "Will Feathers McGraw ever return?" I thought, "What if Feathers was involved with these gnomes?" So three decades on, Feathers is back!'

The film also welcomes back other familiar characters, including Chief Inspector Mackintosh (Peter Kay), who is called in to investigate when Feathers seeks revenge on Wallace and Gromit after the penguin escapes zoo prison, where he'd been languishing since masterminding a jewellery heist in The Wrong Trousers.

Meanwhile, there are a host of new characters voiced by actors such as Sir Lenny Henry, Motherland's Diane Morgan, Bridgerton's Adjoa Andoh and Everybody's Talking about Jamie's Lauren Patel.

'It's a surreal experience for the actors because we might be able to show them a puppet or drawing of their character, but we don't have much else in the initial stages,' says Crossingham. 'So when they do the voices, it's a case of, "We promise you that it's going to be all right!"'

DEDICATION

As always, the new adventure – which took several years to complete – features production company Aardman's traditional plasticine models and stop-motion animation.

'We did a lot of the storyboarding with the team over video calls throughout the pandemic,' says Park. 'Then you've got the whole animation process, the filming, the visual development, so it's a very long process.'

EXCLUSIVE PREVIEW

'It can be nerve-racking, but I love almost every part of that process – from coming up with the ideas and the writing to designing the models and seeing them come to fruition. I think people see the authenticity of the handmade characters as part of their charm and a lot of humour comes from that, too.'

A global audience will get to see Vengeance Most Fowl when it's released on Netflix on Friday 3 January, and Lancashire-born Park admits he could never have predicted Wallace and Gromit's worldwide success when he created the lovable duo back in the 1980s.

'I knew when I was working on [1989 short film] A Grand Day Out that it was something special because I'd never seen anything like it before so I had a quiet confidence – but it would be impossible to imagine just how successful it would become,' he smiles.

Park, who turns 66 on 6 December, has won three Oscars for his adventures featuring Wallace and Gromit and spin-off character Shaun the Sheep, but when asked which of his awards he treasures most, he gives a surprising answer.

'It's my gold Blue Peter badge,' he smiles. 'I was interviewed on the TV news when I was awarded a CBE in 1997 and I said, "Oh, it's like a Blue Peter badge for grown-ups!" And then Blue Peter picked up on that comment and one thing led to another!'

WELL DONE, LAD!

Actor Ben Whitehead, who began working with Aardman in 2003, became the voice of Wallace when Peter Sallis, best known as Cleggy in Last of the Summer Wine, retired after short film A Matter of Loaf and Death in 2008, before sadly passing away in 2017.

Whitehead has voiced Wallace in video games and the touring show Wallace & Gromit's Musical Marvels, but this is his first feature-length film as West Wallaby Street's cheese-loving inventor.

'Peter Sallis was such a treasure and so amazing with what he brought to Wallace,' says Nick Park. 'It was very hard shoes for anyone to step into, but Ben is a gift and he has really made Wallace his own.'

Michael C. Hall (centre) played Dexter in the parent show

DARKNESS rising

Patrick Gibson stars in a Dexter prequel charting the serial killer's early years

NEW DRAMA

Dexter: Original Sin

From Friday 13 December, Paramount+ (released weekly)

Since we first met Dexter Morgan back in 2006, the vigilante serial killer has held a grim fascination for millions of viewers, as we've watched the one-time blood-spatter analyst – played by Michael C. Hall – rid the world of heinous criminals who had evaded justice.

Now, we get to see how the story began in a 10-part Paramount+ prequel series that goes back to his early years as a forensics intern at the Miami Metro Police Department and charts how he became a bloodthirsty killer.

Set in 1991, Dexter: Original Sin stars Before We Die's Patrick Gibson as Dexter, who's had urges to kill from a young age. Christian Slater plays his adoptive dad, Harry, who helps his son to channel his inner darkness by teaching him a code: only to kill bad people. Meanwhile, Hall returns in voice only to provide Dexter's internal monologue.

Here, Gibson, 29, reveals more about what to expect...

Where do we find Dexter at the beginning of the series? He's just dropped out of college and he's at a crossroads in his life. He decides to begin an internship in the forensics section at the Miami Metro Police Department. It's his coming-of-age story, as he enters adulthood, with all the complications that come with that, while battling these urges that are becoming more powerful than he can control.

In the original series, we only saw Dexter's dad, Harry, in flashback but we get to see more of him in Original Sin... Their relationship is fleshed out more. It's a fascinating father-and-son dynamic. For a lot of the season, it's the backbone of the show. There is a lot of love there but it's very complex. Raising a serial killer comes with a lot of challenges and moral questions, which are really interesting to explore.

How different is the prequel from the original series? It's similar in that blend of the colourful, poppy, fun Miami backdrop but with the darkness that inherently comes with being a serial killer. The difference would be where Dexter is in his life – he has that kind of natural awkwardness that comes in your younger years.

What was it like playing an earlier version of such an established character? Was it a daunting prospect? It was a really interesting challenge. A lot of the initial preparation was absorbing as much as I could of what Michael C. Hall had done in the original series, picking up on his idiosyncrasies and things like his voice and movements. After that, it was just finding how I could put my own spin on it as well.

Dexter Morgan

Patrick Gibson

The young man is developing a 'dark passenger' when he begins an internship with the police.

Harry Morgan

Christian Slater

Dexter's cop dad knows his son has had killer urges from a young age and teaches him to kill bad people.

Debra Morgan

Molly Brown

We saw Dexter's sister as a cop in the original show, but here, she's a teen oblivious to his dark side.

Tanya Martin

Sarah Michelle Gellar

The forensics expert bosses young intern Dexter around as the budding killer finds his feet.

Captain Aaron Spencer

Patrick Dempsey

The captain of the homicide squad has known Dexter since he was a baby.

Detective Maria LaGuerta

Christina Milian

Original-series character Maria is Miami Metro's first female homicide detective.

Detective Angel Batista

James Martinez

Another cop we met in the original series, Batista is a rookie detective who leads with his heart.

Did you swap notes with Michael C. Hall? We met in person for the first time at Comic-Con in San Diego. I was doing a photo shoot and I turned around and he was just in front of me. Having spent so many days and nights listening to his voice and watching him, meeting him in person was surreal. We spoke at length about Dexter and what made him tick, and he had some fascinating takes.

How did you find filming those scenes where Dexter kills his victims? I'm not squeamish, but no one checked before I got the role if I was someone who fainted at the sight of blood. That would have meant challenges on set!

Hunting the hunter

Will The Jackal evade justice as the thriller draws to a close?

LAST ONE THRILLER

The Day of the Jackal

Thursday, 9pm, Sky Atlantic & Sky Showcase

The manhunt for merciless assassin The Jackal reaches an explosive climax in the finale of The Day of the Jackal.

After last week's jaw-dropping incident in Croatia, there are big repercussions, and MI6 agent Bianca Pullman (Lashana Lynch) is convinced that The Jackal (Eddie Redmayne) may have a link to Spain.

But her no-nonsense boss Isabel Kirby (Lia Williams) remains set on shutting down the case, while Bianca's loved ones have also been unhappy about her unflinching mission, which leads her to make a huge decision about her future. When matters take an intriguing turn, however, will she and The Jackal come face to face?

MIRROR IMAGE

'Lashana's a brilliant actor, but it has felt strange making a series where we've both been in our own vacuums, telling our stories,' says Redmayne, 42.

'Bianca and The Jackal are two sides of the same coin. They're both talented, ferociously determined, obsessive and have dubious morals, and we've seen how they've tried to marry that with being human beings and having family lives.'

The Jackal takes increasingly desperate and dangerous steps to flee Croatia and escape capture, as he wants to give up his deadly career to be with wife Nuria (Ursula Corberó) and their son. But tensions between the couple have risen, particularly now that Nuria has learnt more about his work, and in the finale, she also has to make some life-changing choices.

INTENSE RELATIONSHIP

'It becomes really raw for both characters. She is The Jackal's Achilles heel,' teases Redmayne. 'The marriage scenes have been brutal and intense as they have been going into battle, but they were thrilling to shoot.'

As events spiral out of control for The Jackal, who finds himself under threat from several sides, it remains to be seen who comes out alive. But for Redmayne, making the series, which has been one of Sky's biggest hits of recent years, has been a treat.

'This is something that I have felt so passionate about and at the end I felt pretty fulfilled,' he enthuses.

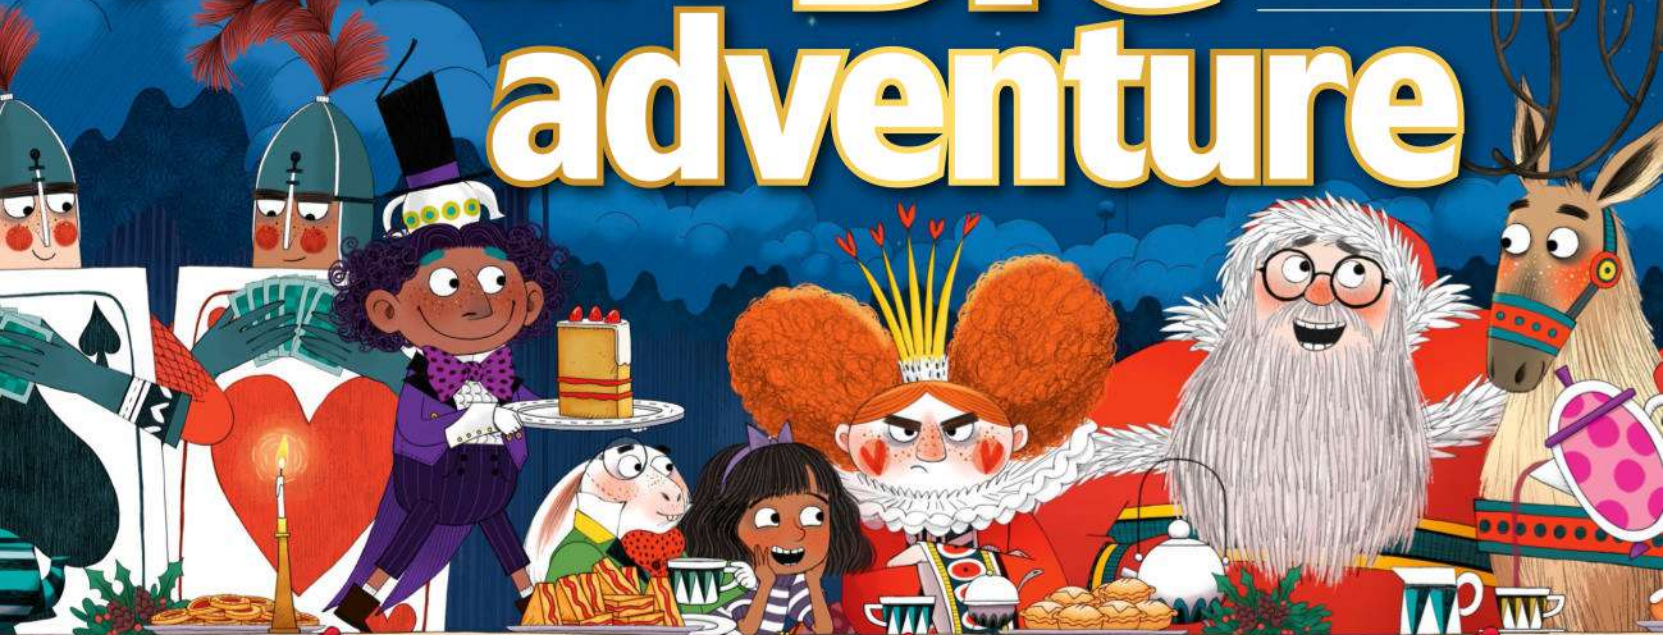

'I hope that audiences have enjoyed going on this ride.'

Santa's BIG adventure

Gerard Butler stars as a singing St Nick in a magical musical mash-up

NEW ANIMATION
The Night Before Christmas in Wonderland

From Friday 13 December, 8.20am & 3.30pm, Sky Premiere

Scottish actor Gerard Butler voices an intrepid Santa in an enchanting yuletide mash-up of Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Clement Clarke Moore's classic poem A Visit from St. Nicholas.

The all-singing, all-dancing one-off animation sees St Nick head to Wonderland after he receives a delayed letter from the Princess of Hearts. He and his reindeer manage to make their way down the famous rabbit hole, but are soon confronted by the mean-spirited Queen of Hearts (voiced by Emilia Clarke), who has banned Christmas from Wonderland.

To make matters worse, when the Queen finds St Nick guilty of the '12 Crimes of Christmas', she's quick to bellow her chilling catchphrase: 'Off with his head!' Can Alice (Simone Ashley) and her friends, including the Mad Hatter (Mawaan Rizwan) and March Hare (Asim Chaudhry), help St Nick teach the Queen about the true meaning of Christmas – or will the big day be ruined for ever?

The voice cast also includes comic Tom Allen and Eurovision singer Mae Muller. Here, London Has Fallen actor Butler, 55, tells us all about the Christmas caper...

How does it feel to voice such an iconic character as St Nick? It feels amazing, I'm over the moon about it. I've looked up to St Nick since I was a kid, and I always thought that one day I'd like to make a biopic of the man, his struggles, his hopes and everything he has to go through at Christmastime. We've tried to contact him but he's a hard man to get hold of! Seriously, though, I was happy to portray St Nick. It was a blast.

Gerard Butler in the recording booth

Asim Chaudhry

Did you get to meet Emilia Clarke, who voices the Queen of Hearts? Sadly, I didn't actually work with any of the actors. I was just in my voice booth hoping that I didn't sound like I was in a different movie to everyone else. Can you imagine, everyone else is playing it down and natural and you're in outer space? But I love Emilia, she's the nicest girl ever and she is fantastic in this movie.

Santa brings the festive spirit to Wonderland

Emilia Clarke voices the Queen of Hearts

Did you enjoy singing the musical numbers? I did. The songs are fantastic. They are all unique, they are all catchy. I feel they could all become Christmas No.1 songs. There are showtime numbers, cabaret tunes, pop songs, weird, trippy songs and I've even got a rap in there, so Eminem and Jay-Z had better watch out! It was a chance to have a little fun and be silly and goofy. I haven't sung for a while, so I had to brush up on that. But I didn't have to brush up too much because he's St Nick and he doesn't have to have the best singing voice.

What makes this story so magical?

It's a great script and a great idea. It's a chance to revisit these two fairy tales we all knew when we were kids. The 2D animation makes everything come to life and you just get caught up with it as you fall into this world. You see the world of St Nick and then you're down the rabbit hole, thinking, 'What just happened?' It's the best, weirdest and most fun take on the holiday season.

Mawaan Rizwan

What do you hope the audience will take from the film?

The lessons behind this movie are lovely but they are not in your face. It takes you on a ride but brings people together at the perfect time, which is the sentiment of Christmas. I knew I'd be part of something special when I signed up.

Do you have a favourite Christmas film?

No, just this one! There are a lot of great Christmas movies, like It's a Wonderful Life and Miracle on 34th Street but, weirdly, the movie that I grew up with and remember watching every Christmas was The Wizard of Oz. It was amazing. It was the first time I saw tornadoes and the first time I realised if you put on red shiny shoes and clicked your heels, you could go home!

This week's soaps at a glance

Sharon tries – and fails – to reason with Linda

EASTENDERS

Will Linda's alcoholism be the death of her?

Almost a year on from her murder of Keanu, guilty Linda has fallen off the wagon again – big time. Devastated to realise what his little brother Ollie is witnessing, Johnny confronts his mum, but Linda turns on him and storms off to stay with Sharon.

The landlady is given a dressing down by her best mate, but that, too, falls on deaf ears – Linda just won't stop drinking, and even steals booze from the Minute Mart. To make matters worse, she leaves Sharon's front door open in her drunken haze, and her pal's home is later burgled.

Recovering alcoholics Phil and Lauren offer to attend a meeting with Linda, and she agrees, leaving Johnny thrilled to think his mother has turned a corner.

But Linda's good intentions don't last long, and mum Elaine reaches the end of the line after a devastating day and presents her daughter with an ultimatum.

Will it be enough to make Linda get sober, or is bitter Bernie's prophecy – that Linda will drink herself to death – set to come true?

Linda knocks back another drink

PLUS Nicola makes a shock discovery about Phil, Teddy and Sharon become official, Ruby gets news about baby Roman, struggling Lauren is given a reality check, and Kim and Mo prepare the men for a cheeky calendar photo shoot.

Oliver with his sticky toffee coffee pudding

Season's eatings!

Jamie Oliver lifts the lid on his new festive feasts...

NEW COOKERY

Jamie Cooks Christmas

Sunday, 8pm, C4

If anyone knows the recipe for dishing up a successful festive feast, it's Jamie Oliver.

This time, in C4 two-parter Jamie Cooks Christmas, the popular chef has created two tasty and innovative new menus to make seasonal gatherings with friends and family extra special.

He kick-starts the party season this week with crowd-pleasing cheesy filo parcels, cauliflower lasagne, chicken, sausage and bacon kebabs, and a sticky toffee coffee pudding. And next week, he mixes things up with a fresh twist on tradition when he swaps out turkey (don't mention Twizzlers!) for a festive porchetta with all the trimmings. Here, Oliver, 49, tells us more...

Chicken, sausage and bacon kebabs (above) and cauliflower lasagne

Are you a fan of this time of year?

Yes, and not just because I love Christmas and the chance to get together with loved ones over incredible food, but because some of my favourite ingredients are now bang in season. Think root veg and winter leaves, Brussels sprouts and red cabbage, the king of Christmas veg!

What elevates red cabbage to royalty?

You can grill it, roast it, caramelise it, braise it or slice it into a fresh slaw. I'll be serving up a starter of smoked trout pâté with a giant tear-and-share Yorkshire pud and vibrant raw red-cabbage slaw this festive season.

What else is on the menu this year?

I love tradition, but it's exciting to introduce something a little bit different to the table, so I'm giving the traditional turkey a run for its money with my porchetta.

What's your advice for reducing seasonal stress? Planning ahead is absolutely key. Throughout the show, I try to give as many pointers as possible, so you can enjoy the day a whole lot more. For example, with my mulled-wine pear pavlova, all the elements can be made ahead and assembled at the last minute.

Do you have tips for the perfect roast potatoes? I like to gently half-squash my potatoes when they've been in the oven for an hour or so – it's game-changing how crispy they get. This year, I'm going to parboil my spuds in chicken stock, and I'd really recommend it. Plus, you can use that lovely starchy stock to make your gravy – it's win-win.

Other than food, what makes this a special time for you? It's all about family and getting everyone together. River, my youngest, is still at that age when everything is completely magical. He loves decorating the tree and we'll put mince pies and carrots out for Father Christmas – that's just wonderful to be around.

2004

After starting out in children's TV in 2004 on Ministry of Mayhem (inset), Holly Willoughby has hosted a range of entertainment shows, including Dancing on Ice and The Voice UK. She was a team captain on Celebrity Juice and left her role as presenter on daytime show This Morning in 2023 after 14 years. She'll next present survival show Bear Hunt for Netflix.

HER NEW SHOW

This week, Willoughby and Stephen Mulhern host a revamp of classic game show You Bet!, which sees ordinary people claim they can do something extraordinary within a limited time. A panel of celebrities, including Rob Beckett and Harry Redknapp, bet on whether they can achieve it. 'I remember watching You Bet! as a kid, and I loved it,' reveals Willoughby. 'I remember being glued to the TV while watching someone use a digger to pick up six delicate eggs in its giant jaws and placing them on egg cups.'

Clues to a killer

Ruth and Tosh close in on the murderer as Shetland concludes

LAST ONE CRIME DRAMA

Shetland

Wednesday, 9pm, BBC1

The search for the killer of Annie Bett reaches its gripping conclusion this week as a shocking revelation from Lisa Friel (Tara Lee) directs Ruth (Ashley Jensen) and Tosh (Alison O'Donnell) to turn their attention towards a new suspect. But will they finally be able to get justice for Annie and her family?

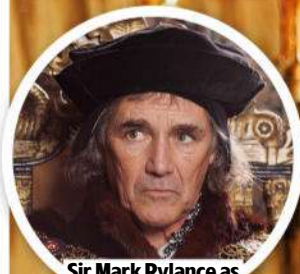

We spoke to O'Donnell, to find out what's in store...

What can you tell us about the final episode? Now we've ruled out certain elements, the focus narrows down. But there are still reveals and twists. Hopefully we'll keep viewers guessing until the end.

Tosh was close to Annie, and the investigation has put huge pressure on her friendships. Have you enjoyed exploring that? Yes, it's really nice as an actor to have something more personal running alongside the procedural. We've seen Tosh mature, especially in these last two seasons – when we first met her, she was such a rookie, learning on the job and getting things wrong. It's been a long journey, but she's growing in confidence and getting really good at her job.

She and Ruth have a much closer working relationship now, too... The scenes with Ashley are the best bit of the job for me – that dynamic between them is where the really interesting stuff is, and because it's new, there's so much still to explore. That's exciting – we're never covering old ground, because there isn't any!

Annie's son Noah has a key role in the denouement. What was it like working with young actor Jacob Ferguson, who plays him? Jacob is incredible. When they were casting, we were all thinking, 'Please find a kid that can do it,' because this is really sophisticated stuff. You need a kid with maturity and proper chops to carry this off – and they found a superstar.

Shetland has been commissioned for a 10th series. Can you give us any teasers of what to expect?

The writers have given me a breakdown of what the story will be, and what Tosh's story will be, and I am very excited. There's an angle for Tosh that I think the show has been crying out for – I think the fans are going to love it.

DRAMA

Wolf Hall: The Mirror and the Light

Sunday, 9pm, BBC1

Following the death of his beloved third wife, Jane Seymour, King Henry VIII's search for a new bride continues in this week's episode of the Tudor drama.

Lord Privy Seal Thomas Cromwell (Sir Mark Rylance) is playing matchmaker, and after scouring the royal courts of Europe, he believes he's found the perfect match in Anne of Cleves (Dana Herfurth).

Henry (Damian Lewis) has misgivings, but knows that marriage to the German princess will secure an important alliance after England's recent break with the Roman Catholic Church.

Thomas encourages the match and, after being persuaded of Anne's beauty, Henry finally agrees to a royal wedding, so Anne begins her journey to England.

Meanwhile, Henry heads to Rochester in Kent unannounced to meet his new wife ahead of schedule. The King intends to surprise Anne by going in disguise, although Thomas and fellow adviser Thomas Wriothesley have their doubts about the wisdom of his actions.

'Cromwell and Wriothesley ask Henry if he's sure it's a good idea,' says Harry Melling, who plays Wriothesley. 'Henry's insistent that he's going to wear a costume and surprise Anne. And, of course, he does do it, because he's King Henry.'

However, the plan misfires when Henry's bride fails to notice him, while the monarch is underwhelmed by her appearance. Will their wedding come back to haunt Thomas Cromwell and put his life in jeopardy?

Sir Elton John recalls the highs and lows of his sparkling career

'The point of this documentary, for me, is that the truth should always be told'

SIR ELTON JOHN

Disney+ Elton John: Never Too Late

NEW Available: Friday 13 December
Genre: Documentary

When Disney+ cameras captured Sir Elton John's last-ever US concert in Elton John Live: Farewell from Dodger Stadium in 2022, the performance marked the end of a remarkable musical journey for the legendary rock star.

Now, in the feature-length rockumentary Elton John: Never Too Late, which follows the star on that farewell American tour, the 77-year-old singer looks back on his career – both the soaring highs and the crushing lows.

It all began with John's first American tour in 1970, which came on the back of his first hit single in the UK with 1970's Your Song. As he travelled to California to play the famous Troubadour club, his acclaimed performances kick-started his career Stateside, setting him on the road to becoming a massive star on both sides of the Atlantic.

SUPERSTARDOM

'The next day, we got incredible press reviews, word spread, and the album went soaring up the charts,' he recalls. 'I thought we might be quite successful in America, but never as successful as that.'

But, as John recalls in the documentary, success didn't bring him happiness.

'I didn't want to be the Elton that I'd become,' he admits. 'There was an emptiness within me, and I didn't have anything apart from my success and drugs.

But everyone thought my life was perfect.'

While John was hitting career milestones, including the unprecedented feat of successive albums entering the US chart at No.1, his increasingly turbulent private life was leading him towards a pivotal moment when he came out as bisexual in a 1976 interview with Rolling Stone magazine.

'I was so tired of hiding away,' says John, who would tell the same magazine in 1992 that he was 'comfortable' being gay. 'That was a definitive time in my life because I was being honest. Even now, the whole point of this documentary, for me, is that the truth should always be told.'

The film also examines one of rock music's all-time great songwriting partnerships, between John and English lyricist Bernie Taupin, who appears in archive interviews. As John recalls, their collaboration started as a happy accident when he was handed an envelope containing Taupin's lyrics.

'It boggles the mind,' he says. 'That was the biggest piece of serendipity that I could possibly have, and Bernie was the link to whatever was going to happen.'

FAMILY MAN

Looking back over his life and career, John says that his priorities have dramatically changed over the years, especially thanks to his long marriage to David Furnish, who co-directed the film, and becoming a father to their sons Zachary and Elijah.

'On my tombstone, I don't want it to say: "He sold millions of records,"' he says. 'I want it to say: "He was a great dad and a great husband."'

Making magic

Gabriel García Márquez's landmark novel is brought to life in a fantastical new drama

NETFLIX One Hundred Years of Solitude

NEW Available: Wednesday 11 December Genre: Drama Season: 1 (part A) Episodes: 8

First published in 1967, Gabriel García Márquez's magic-realism masterpiece, One Hundred Years of Solitude, has sold more than 50 million copies worldwide and has been translated into more than 40 languages. Now, the compelling tale of family, fate and fantasy is retold in an epic 16-part Netflix drama, filmed in the late author's native Colombia.

Split across two eight-episode instalments (with part B to follow), the Spanish-language adaptation follows several generations of the Buendía family, beginning with cousins José Arcadio Buendía (Marco González) and Úrsula Iguarán (Susana Morales), who defy their parents and decide to marry.

Longing for a new life, the couple embark upon a treacherous journey and end up settling on a faraway swampy riverbank, where they build an isolated, utopian town called Macondo with their growing family.

But when José befriends a visiting Gypsy, Melquíades, he becomes fascinated with innovations and alchemy, and Macondo's prosperity begins to decline. As passion, betrayal, ancient curses and solitude all begin to torment the Buendía family, will each descendant be destined to repeat the past?

'One of our goals was to stay true to the spirit of the novel, highlighting the complexity of Colombia, the violence, the family dynamics, the curses, and the stories that are repeated,' explains co-writer Natalia Santa.

Filmmakers visited dozens of cities and towns in Colombia to find their cast, which is made up of professionals and amateurs, with multiple actors portraying the main characters at different times in their lives.

The series, which was filmed entirely in Colombia, has full support from the Nobel Prize-winning author's family, too, with the novelist's sons, Rodrigo García and Gonzalo García Barcha, among the executive producers.

'When he was alive, my father used to say that if a screen adaptation of One Hundred Years of Solitude lasted several hours and was shot in Spanish, in Colombia, then he may consider it,' says Rodrigo García. 'Years later, those words helped the family to decide to sell the rights. Now, we're excited for people to watch and enjoy it.'

A businessman is murdered on his birthday – but who pulled the trigger?

viaplay Who Shot Otto Mueller?

NEW Available: Monday 9 December Genre: Crime drama Season: 1 Episodes: 8

There's more than a touch of Agatha Christie to this intriguing Estonian whodunnit about a powerful businessman and former Soviet wrestling star, Otto Mueller, who is found shot dead in his manor house on his 65th birthday.

Eight of Otto's family members soon fall under suspicion, and as detectives begin to interrogate each one in turn, dark truths about the victim come to light.

It seems that everyone had a motive for killing the arrogant and bullying Otto (Jaan Rekkor), including his long-suffering psychologist wife, Merle (Liina Tennosaar), and the couple's resentful sons, Oliver (Märt Avandi) and Oskar (Mait Malmsten), who had both borne the brunt of their father's tyranny.

Also under suspicion is Otto's mistress, Marleen (Karmel Naudre), who stands to inherit a fortune in his will, and teenager Robert (Theodor Tabor), who unexpectedly turns up at the manor to announce he is Otto's secret grandson. But who pulled the trigger on the monstrous patriarch?

Each episode of the crime drama focuses on the interrogation of a different suspect by experienced homicide detective Gabriel Vanem (Tambet Tuisk) and his new partner, ex-narcotics cop Detective Agnes Maramaa (Doris Tislar).

'It's like Groundhog Day. You see the murder through the eyes of each character, and everything shifts,' explains writer Birk Rohelend. 'If you like psychological thrillers, this is for you.'

Taron Egerton battles to foil a terrorist plot during the festive season

NETFLIX Carry-On

NEW Available: Friday 13 December
Genre: Thriller

An airport security agent finds himself in a desperate battle to save hundreds of lives when a ruthless terrorist threatens to blow up a Christmas Eve flight in this gripping Netflix thriller.

Billed as the streaming giant's answer to festive classics Die Hard and Die Hard 2, Carry-On looks set to offer action fans a fresh fix.

The story opens with Transportation Security Administration employee Ethan Kopek (Rocketman's Taron Egerton) beginning his shift overseeing the X-ray machines at a busy US airport's check-in as travellers fly home for the holidays.

However, he receives a call from a sinister stranger (Ozark's Jason Bateman) who threatens him into letting a dangerous carry-on package on to a flight.

It's clear the package will endanger the lives of everyone at the airport, but the anonymous terrorist tells Ethan that if he doesn't comply, his girlfriend Nora (Sofia Carson) will be killed.

'When we first meet Ethan, he's unhappy at work at the airport and feeling dejected,' reveals Egerton. 'He's also just found out Nora is pregnant. So he feels pressure to be a responsible father and provider, but he also feels a deep lack of fulfilment.'

Egerton and the film's director, Jaume Collet-Serra, who has directed Liam Neeson in action movies Non-Stop and The Commuter, shared a vision of the film's leading man.

'When Jaume first approached me about the role, I told him I didn't want to do something that felt like an archetypal action hero,' explains Egerton. 'Luckily, neither of us thought that's what was exciting or interesting about Ethan.'

'We made sure that he feels as relatable and as normal as possible. But he's pretty noble and selfless. Ethan has all the qualities of an archetypal hero underneath his lack of direction. So when he's put in this terrible situation, he has a huge occasion to rise to...'

Nutcracker: Backstage with English National Ballet

Monday, 8pm, Sky Arts & Sky Showcase

A two-part look behind the scenes of English National Ballet's latest production of Nutcracker, a reinvention of the famous Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky ballet, with contributions from dancers and musicians, as the company gears up for the world premiere.

Martin (right) braves the icy chill

'The average temperature in the region is getting on for -20C,' says Martin. 'They say if you can survive up here, you can survive anywhere. The Commandos are the toughest people, doing the toughest job, in the toughest environment.'

The Royal Marines are stationed at Camp Viking, where they are trained to deter any attacks from an increasingly aggressive Russia, which is just 200 miles away. And when Martin joins them in the icy wilderness in the opening episode of the series, his first task is to learn how to survive being dunked in a frozen lake.

TEST OF ENDURANCE

It's an essential survival skill in the Arctic, where just a few minutes in the icy water can cause frostbite, hypothermia and even a heart attack.

'My biggest weakness is cold,' admits Martin. 'Once my fingers and toes get cold, it's like, "Put him in the van, it's a waste of time!" so I was a bit nervous.'

TOUGH TASKS

The 43-year-old from Grimsby must also embark on a gruelling trek up a snowy mountain before making camp in the wilderness. Then it's time to put on night-vision goggles and get behind the wheel of an all-terrain vehicle in the dark.

'It makes you feel seasick,' he reveals. 'It all looks 2D and you've got no idea where the hills are.'

Finally, Martin takes part in a training exercise in which he's tasked with acting as a mobile air-traffic controller to assist a helicopter during live fire.

'We got the job done,' says Martin after the exercise. 'Some stuff has been bloody hard, but no one is bailing and no one gets emotional about anything. All the Commandos are fully committed to the job. I loved it. It's been mega.'

An Essex school becomes a no-phone zone in a unique experiment

Children's wellbeing is top of the agenda

NEW FACTUAL

Swiped: The School That Banned Smartphones

Wednesday & Thursday, 8pm, C4 (box set, Channel 4)

If a mobile phone is on your child's Christmas list this year, don't miss this two-part documentary, which examines the impact of smartphone technology on children's wellbeing.

With 50% of nine-year-olds in the UK now owning a smartphone, alarm bells are ringing for parents such as presenter couple Emma and Matt Willis, who worry about the effects of social media and apps.

In C4's two-parter, the pair team up with The Stanway School in Colchester, Essex, where a group of Year 8 pupils agree to ditch their devices for 21 days as part of a unique experiment.

MONITORING

All the while, researchers at the University of York will test their behaviour, cognitive abilities, attention, reaction times and memory. Will the digital detox have a profound effect on their brains?

'We are the parents of the demographic who are consumed by devices,' says Emma, 48, whose children are aged 15, 13 and eight. 'But if us grown-ups are addicted, and we haven't even had all this technology our whole lives, how are kids meant to stand a chance?'

'They're socialising from their bedrooms through a device, and while it might feel safe because they're at home, they've got every stranger in the world in the palm of their hand!'

JOINING IN

The Voice UK host admits she felt 'out of control' when she and her husband also surrendered their phones to the experiment.

'The first four days, I was an absolute mess because we live through our phones, don't we?' she says. 'But once I'd adjusted, I loved it!'

The timely documentary is part of a nationwide conversation about whether the Government should consider a ban on smartphones for children under 14 or 16.

'It's a big problem that's going to shape how our kids develop,' says Matt, 41. 'It's going to take everyone – parents, schools, the Government, tech companies – to come together because it's all of our jobs to protect our kids from things that might negatively affect them.'

There's more than a hint of Disney to this terrific tale involving a princess on a family-saving mission

ANIMATION

On now, on demand, Netflix

The nearest Netflix has come to peak Disney, this princess-on-a-quest musical is a big, lavish and wonderfully entertaining animated tale. Princess Ellian (a pitch-perfect, perky Rachel Zegler) has a big problem – her parents, the king and queen (Javier Bardem and Nicole Kidman) were turned into mindless monsters the year before, and trying to keep it secret from the rest of the kingdom is a major headache. So, along with her mum and dad, and her pet (a purple hamster-like creature bodyswapped with a royal advisor and now voiced by John Lithgow), she sets off on a perilous journey to change her parents back.

Although the animation isn't as imaginative as has been seen recently (Spider-Man: Into the Spider-Verse and its sequel, for instance), it is beautifully realised, matching the best out there. There's a fluency and grace to the images that more than hold up when set against Disney's best CGI efforts.

And songs from Alan Menken – the man behind the music for the likes of The Little Mermaid, Beauty and the Beast and Aladdin – are catchy, hummable tunes, sung supremely well by the cast, with the obvious stand-out being West Side Story's Zegler, who was born to belt out these kind of showstoppers.

The theme of kids stuck in a messy situation is compassionately handled in a movie that feels like pure nostalgia with an essential modern twist. 2024, U, 106MIN

A Sudden Case of Christmas

Sunday, 1.30pm, Sky Premiere

When 10-year-old Claire (a mildly precocious Antonella Rose) learns her parents (Lucy DeVito and Wilmer Valderrama) have taken her to the hotel in the Italian Dolomites owned by her grandfather (Danny DeVito) to break it to her they're splitting up, the kid decides to hold one last family Christmas together. In August. Along for the ride is also the other set of grandparents (Andie MacDowell and José Zúñiga), as Claire and her grandpa hope to reunite the child's parents. Far better than most family-based festive fare, it still wastes a strong cast with light, predictable fluff. But having bucolic mountainscapes as a background helps, and veteran British director Peter Chelsom keeps things bright and breezy without spreading too much saccharine around. 2024, 12, 91MIN

There's a decidedly old-school, 1970s-80s feel to Peter Baynton's first full-length feature – think Captain Pugwash and Mr Benn etc. Having enchanted us with his beautiful The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse, he takes another popular children's book and brings it to life. After a last-minute letter, St Nick (voiced by Gerard Butler) decides to start his gift-giving night with a trip to Wonderland, where he falls foul of the Christmas hating – and quite murderous – Queen of Hearts (Emilia Clarke). He bumps into Alice (Simone Ashley) and daft adventures ensue, including joining her chums the Mad Hatter and the March Hare. This delightful romcom, based on When You Were Mine by Rebecca Serle, puts Rosaline (Kaitlyn Dever), a character on the periphery in Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, centre stage. She gives Romeo (Kyle Allen) the cold shoulder but tries to win him back after he falls for Juliet (Isabela Merced). As the strife between Capulets and Montagus simmers in the background, she continues to brush off Sean Teale's gallant Dario, too blind to see that he is Mr Right. The handling and performances hit exactly the right tone and the way in which it is finally resolved is truly inspired. 2022, PG, 96MIN

In a pleasant UK coastal town, the Radleys seem like any other family – mum and dad Kelly Macdonald and Damian Lewis and kids Bo Bragason and Harry Baxendale. But after Bragason wards off a sexual assaulter by flinging him across the forest floor and drinking his blood, Lewis and Macdonald fess up – they're vampires (although abstinent)! Meanwhile, Baxendale is also coming to terms with his sexuality. To say more would ruin the fun in this terrific black satire of suburban life told with wit – and bite. 2024, 15, 115MIN

Constance Wu's New Yorker is in for a shock when she learns that her long-time boyfriend (Henry Golding) comes from a fabulously rich family – and that he is the highly eligible bachelor heir to its enormous fortune. But will she fit in with his impossibly swanky moneyed set? Based on Kevin Kwan's best-selling 2013 novel, this breezy romcom is a decidedly old-fashioned affair, but always endearing. 2018, 12, 121MIN

Capturing the awe and terror of the world's highest mountain with heart-stopping intensity, this sober, unsentimental account of the 1996 Mount Everest climbing disaster is utterly gripping. Jason Clarke and Jake Gyllenhaal play the leaders of two rival expeditions who have to endure truly harrowing conditions when they are trapped by a blizzard. The film conveys their desperate ordeal with bone-chilling realism. 2015, 12, 121MIN

Richard Griffiths gives a brilliantly outsized, memorable turn as a history teacher in 1983 who lands in trouble when he tries to get a class of sixth-formers (including Dominic Cooper and James Corden) into shape for Oxbridge. Full of funny, revealing lines, Alan Bennett's script, from his own hit play, is as witty and wise as it is provocative, subversive and clever. Clive Merrison is the headteacher and Frances de la Tour Griffiths' colleague. 2006, 15, 109MIN

European Champions Cup

Title holders
Toulouse

Your complete guide to all the action, including five star players to watch...

LIVE RUGBY UNION

Saturday, Sunday & Friday, Premier Sports
After lifting the Champions Cup for a record-extending sixth time last May, holders Toulouse begin the defence of their title when the formidable French side host Ulster on Sunday (kick-off 3.15pm, Premier Sports 1). This season sees the 30th staging of the tournament, with the final being held in Cardiff next May.

The weekend's round-one fixtures also see Premiership champions Northampton Saints host Castres (Saturday, 3.15pm, Premier Sports 2), while Harlequins travel to a Racing 92 side that includes English winger Henry Arundell (Saturday, 8pm, Premier Sports 1) and Leinster – runners-up for the past three seasons – begin at Bristol Bears (Sunday, 5.30pm, Premier Sports 1).

Here's everything you need to know...

WORDS: RICHARD MCCLEURE. PHOTOS: ALAMY GETTY

EBEN ETZEBETH

The Springbok legend captained Sharks as they became first South African side to win a European trophy in last season's Challenge Cup.

CAELAN DORIS

Having assumed the captaincy of Ireland in the summer, can the Leinster back-row finally lead his side to Champions Cup glory?

ANTOINE DUPONT

The superstar scrum-half led France to Sevens Olympic gold in the summer and will be seeking back-to-back Champions Cups with Toulouse.

MARCUS SMITH

The Harlequins fly-half impressed for England in the Autumn Nations Series, and was top points scorer in last season's Champions Cup.

DAMIAN PENAUD

The Bordeaux winger scores tries for fun, and will want to be back to his best after missing some of France's autumn matches with illness.

THE POOLS

Each team plays four pool matches, with the top four progressing to the knockout stage, while the four fifth-placed teams drop down to the Challenge Cup.

● POOL ONE

Holders Toulouse have been drawn alongside Challenge Cup champions Sharks, Exeter Chiefs, Leicester Tigers, Ulster and Bordeaux.

● POOL TWO

Perennial runners-up Leinster are pooled with old foes La Rochelle, West Country rivals Bath and Bristol Bears, Clermont Auvergne and Benetton.

● POOL THREE

Premiership champions Northampton Saints have been drawn with Munster and Saracens, plus Stade Français, Castres and Bulls.

● POOL FOUR

United Rugby Championship winners Glasgow Warriors head the pool, joined by Harlequins, Sale Sharks, Stormers, Racing 92 and Toulon.

HOW TO WATCH

This season, all 63 Champions Cup matches will be shown live on Premier Sports after the broadcaster signed a three-year deal that also includes a pick of Challenge Cup games.

The Challenge Cup action begins on Friday 6 Nov with Dragons versus Montpellier (k-o 8pm, S4C) and Gloucester against Edinburgh (k-o 8pm, Premier Sports 2), while Ospreys host Lions on Sunday (k-o 3.15pm, Premier Sports 2). To subscribe, go to [premier sports.com/gb](https://premier sports.com/gb)

F1: Abu Dhabi Grand Prix

Sunday, race starts 1pm, Sky Sports F1

The last Grand Prix of 2024 will be an unmissable event as Sir Lewis Hamilton gets behind the wheel of a Mercedes for the final time. After 12 consecutive seasons, the 39-year-old seven-time champion is leaving the Silver Arrows to join Ferrari next year and will want to end on a high with a podium finish at Yas Marina where he has won five times. There will be plenty of other bittersweet moments in Abu Dhabi, with Carlos Sainz Jr leaving Ferrari to join Williams in 2025, and Nico Hülkenberg, Kevin Magnussen, Esteban Ocon, Valtteri Bottas and Zhou Guanyu also departing their teams.

Track Champions League

Saturday, Eurosport 2

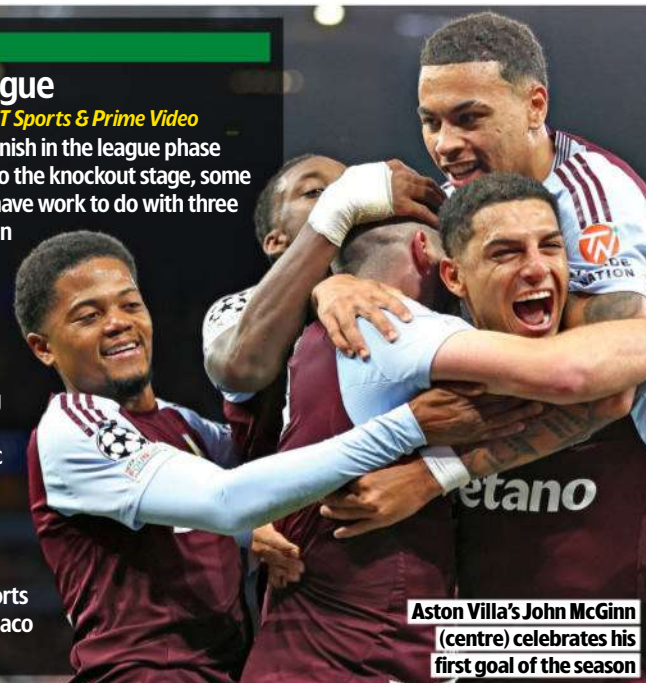

There'll be a sell-out crowd for the grand finale at the Lee Valley VeloPark as the Champions League comes to an end. In the men's endurance contest, Britain's Will Tidball will want to improve on last year's second-place finish in the overall standings when he lost a close battle with Canada's blue-jersey winner Dylan Bibic. The former scratch world champion was forced to miss the Paris Olympics in the summer after being diagnosed with Epstein-Barr virus.

Champions League

Tuesday & Wednesday, TNT Sports & Prime Video

With only a top-eight finish in the league phase guaranteeing progress to the knockout stage, some of the British clubs still have work to do with three matchdays remaining. On Tuesday, Liverpool and Aston Villa should both pick up three points at underperforming Girona (5.45pm, TNT Sports 1) and RB Leipzig (8pm, Prime Video) respectively, while Celtic travel to Dinamo Zagreb (5.45pm, TNT Sports 2). On Wednesday, Manchester City visit Juventus (8pm, TNT Sports 2) and Arsenal host Monaco (8pm, TNT Sports 1).

European Cross Country Championship

Sun, 7.55am, BBC Red Button

Great Britain is the most successful nation in the European Cross Country Championships and will be in contention again at this year's event in Turkey. The GB team dominated the medal table in Brussels last year with seven golds, including individual titles for Innes FitzGerald, Megan Keith and Will Barnicoat, with all three set to defend their titles on Sunday. (Highlights: 4.05pm, BBC2.)

KIDS WATCHLIST

Great shows for young viewers (from tots to teens) on linear TV and streaming

NEW

Dream Productions

All episodes available from Wednesday, Disney+
Set between the events of Inside Out and Inside Out 2, this new series follows the work of dream director Paula Persimmon, who is in charge of creating Riley's dreams. As Riley is getting older, and her core emotions, including Joy (pictured), are helping her navigate life as a tweenager, Paula's job is getting harder – dreams featuring Rainbow Unicorn just aren't cutting it! Paula needs to save her career – can an overly confident daydream director help create a tween-dream hit?

CBeebies Panto: Beauty and the Beast

Saturday, 9.50am, CBeebies & BBC iPlayer
Featuring all of your CBeebies favourites, including Puja Panchkoti and Rhys Stephenson, this year's panto is a retelling of the fairy tale Beauty and the Beast. Set in Scotland, we meet the handsome Beau, whose good looks are stolen by the Thorn Fairy, turning him into the Beast. Meanwhile, Bella is looking for a perfect Christmas rose when she bumps into the Beast. Is he really as bad as people think? With plenty of panto magic, this is a great watch for the whole family. (Oh yes, it is!)

More great shows to watch this week...

My Life: The Snowman

Friday, 6pm, CBBC & BBC iPlayer
 We follow two young actors all the way from their auditions to opening night, as The Snowman prepares for its 27th year in London's West End.

Elf

Sat, 2.35pm, Sky Christmas
 Festive comedy starring Will Ferrell as Buddy, a human who was brought up by elves in the North Pole, who sets off for New York to find his real dad. A modern Christmas classic, best watched with milk and cookies.

Wonder Pets: In the City

Available Fri, Apple TV+
 A trio of heroes – Zuri the bunny, Izzy the guinea pig, and Tate the snake – travel the globe in their Jetcar to rescue animals.

Coming soon

Magistrate Claire (Erin Richards)

Tom Cullen as Saint Pete

Mudtown

Erin Richards and Tom Cullen star in a compelling legal thriller set in South Wales

A magistrate is shaken when her past returns to haunt her in U&A's upcoming drama Mudtown.

The six-part Wales-set series will be broadcast next spring and is penned by real-life part-time magistrate Georgia Lee and her writing partner Hannah Daniel. It sees Erin Richards as Claire Lewis Jones, who presides over a range of cases at Newport Magistrates' Court, while also raising her daughter Beca (Lauren Morais). But Claire finds herself thrust into a challenging situation when local gangster Saint Pete (Tom Cullen), with whom she shares a history, resurfaces.

WORLDS COLLIDE

Meanwhile, after Beca's old friend is accused of arson, Claire faces a moral dilemma over how to proceed without antagonising the community or her daughter. But as events become more complex, and concerns are raised about Beca's roguish new boyfriend Sonny Higgins (Lloyd Meredith), Claire comes across unsettling secrets that could spell danger...

Matthew Gravelle, Kimberley Nixon and Gareth John Bale co-star in the drama, which will also air on Welsh-language channel S4C in late December.

'We are thrilled at the opportunity to represent the untold world of magistrates' courts, shot through with an authentic South Walian spirit,' say writers Lee and Daniel. 'We couldn't be more excited about bringing the characters and this thrilling story to the screen.'

WHAT'S NEXT FOR...

David Baddiel

The comedian will cycle across France with his former The Mary Whitehouse Experience co-star Hugh Dennis for an as-yet-untitled C4 travelogue, with Baddiel on an e-bike and Dennis on a racer.

Teresa Palmer

In BBC1's Australia-set adaptation of Liane Moriarty's novel The Last Anniversary, the actor plays a woman who inherits a house on an island where a couple vanished years before. Miranda Richardson co-stars.

Coming Back

Sophie Rundle will be back as Jo Marshall for a second run of ITV1 crime thriller After the Flood, as the newly promoted cop finds her home town under threat of flood again, while she has to fight corruption and catch a killer.

BBC3's BAFTA-winning comedy Dinosaur, co-created by and starring Ashley Storrie, is returning for a second series to follow spirited Scot Nina, who is autistic and juggles family challenges with her own plans for the future.

DIAMOND PENDANT

24-Carat Gold-Plating

Glittering Diamond

Crystal & Rhodium Pavé

*A visit from a robin means we're never far apart.
My spirit lives forever deep within your heart...*

Just as the moon waxes and wanes and time passes, the love for a lost one remains eternal. It's said that a visit from a robin means that a loved one is visiting from heaven. Keep a symbol of eternal remembrance close to your heart with the 'Messenger Of Love' Diamond Robin Moon Pendant – a first-of-a-kind, exclusive to The Bradford Exchange.

A UNIQUE DESIGN WITH 24-CARAT GOLD-PLATING, GENUINE CRYSTALS, RHODIUM & A GENUINE DIAMOND

Depicting an elegant moon crescent design, this handcrafted pendant is plated in rich 24-carat gold. An exquisitely crafted 24-carat gold-plated robin with enamel red-breast perches upon 24-carat gold-plated branches, accented with crystal and precious rhodium pavé, whilst the bale glimmers with a sparkling genuine 1pt diamond. The pendant reverse is meticulously engraved with the sentiment: 'Messenger of Love' and two delightful decorative hearts. For the perfect finishing touch, the pendant includes a 24-carat gold plated 18-inch chain with 2 inch extender chain.

DON'T MISS OUT – ORDER YOUR PENDANT TODAY!

A symbol of everlasting love, this ladies' jewellery is accompanied by a custom-designed presentation case, a Poem Card and our 120-day money-back guarantee. It is available for just 4 interest-free instalments of £24.99 – that's only £99.96 (plus £6.99 S&S)*. Pay nothing now – simply complete and return the Priority Order Form today!

Shown larger than actual size. Pendant measures 1.1 inches (3 cm) from top of bale to base of moon. Chain measures 18 inches (45.7 cm) in length with a 2 inch (5 cm) extender.
