Galactic Goofery Galore!

A long time ago (actually, 1952), in an office far, far away (225 Lafayette Street, NY, NY to be exact)...

It is a period of comedic unrest. Bored and in desperate need of entertainment, the American public demands a magazine filled with fresh, biting satire, hysterical comic observations and uncontrolled hilarity.

Instead, they get MAD Magazine! Led by William M. Gaines (a man equal in girth to Jabba the Hutt) and his Usual Gang of Idiots, MAD becomes an insignificant force in American pop culture, wasting the precious time of every man, woman and child who crosses its dreaded path.

Once again pursued by the sinister force known as the Bottom Line, MAD turns to its readers and begs them to subscribe...
