MAD

There are some who would argue that the internet is the most important technological development of the last 100 years... that it has altered the very way we think, act and communicate... that it has led to an information revolution that will empower us and make us better citizens in the New Millennium! And it's pretty obvious that those people have never been to OUR website, because believe it or not, at madmag.com we consider this...

CAMP GRAMMY

THE SUMMER CAMP FOR FUTURE ROCK & RAP STARS

ARTIST: RAY ALMA

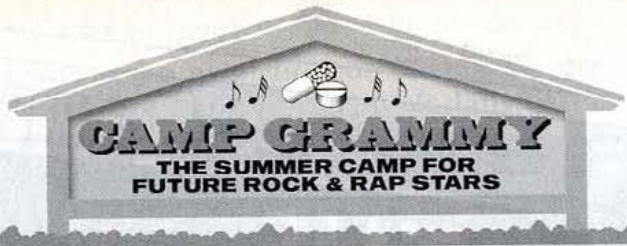

WRITER: GREG LEITMAN

Located in the quaint beach community of East Hampton, NY, Camp Grammy provides youngsters with the experiences and the skills necessary to become successful and productive rock 'n roll musicians. Campers live in a setting of vast riches, where they discover the benefits of a lifestyle of hedonism and debauchery, learn teamwork and cooperation through sex with multiple partners and form strong and often lifelong drug addictions.

Our facilities are state of the art. Camp Grammy is situated on a 15-acre palatial oceanfront estate that used to belong to one of the frontmen for Milli Vanilli. The campgrounds include a large Spanish-style manor house, several guest houses, a recording studio, outdoor hot tubs and statues of prominent figures from the Seattle grunge movement.

Activities

Camp Grammy offers many daily activities, designed both to enhance the quality of the summer camp experience and to prepare campers for their future responsibilities as rock stars. All of our courses are headlined by seasoned professionals. Among the choices available:

Aerobics

Performing for live audiences requires tremendous energy and physical conditioning – just ask Blues Traveler's John Popper! With his own very laid-back approach to exercise, Instructor Popper puts you through the paces of his aerobic workout, which consists entirely of learning the one harmonica riff Popper knows, and blowing it over and over until you get tired. Please note that you are allowed – even encouraged – to bring food to this class for the purpose of sharing. Instructor Popper would like you to know he enjoys Twinkies.

Badminton

Many of you may not know this, but while REM's Michael Stipe was losing his religion, he was finding a new hobby – badminton! Long an avid fan of the sport, Instructor Stipe has been competing in badminton tournaments since the mid '90s, and is currently ranked 346th in North America. In fact, Stipe's volunteer work for Amnesty International now includes counseling newly released political prisoners on the finer points of racket sports. Please join him for this course, and help make the world a better place.

Here's What A Former Camper Is Saying About Us...

For a long time, I wanted to break into the music industry, but I couldn't figure out how. Then, I watched as Britney Spears' career took off, and I decided to attend Camp Grammy, where I learned so much about being true to myself and my own identity. Now I'm a huge success – and a total original.
– Mandy Moore

Here's What A Former Camper Is Saying About Us...

Yo. Camp Grammy is phat! Before I went there and lived in a small cabin with twelve other wiggers, I'd never beat the crap out of someone just for being gay before! I learned mad skillz like how to make a blunt, how to keep hos in their place and how to pistol whip guys who talk to my bitch. I never told nobody this before, but the real Slim Shady is actually the groundskeeper at camp who used to buy me forties. I gotta give Camp Grammy props – it helped make me the man I am today! That's why I came back as a Camp Grammy counselor, yo!
– Marshall Mathers (Eminem)

Parenting

These days, it ain't easy to donate the sperm that fertilizes the egg that becomes a child raised by two lesbians! And no one knows this better than David Crosby, who's selflessly given of himself not once, but twice! Join Instructor Crosby for this enlightening seminar on the do's and don'ts of artificial insemination. All students are supplied with specimen cups, but are advised to bring copies of their favorite magazines to class. Instructor Crosby recommends Over 40.

Target Shooting

Why carry a gun if you're not prepared to use it? Whether it's to defend your multi-million dollar mansion or punish a nightclub patron who's not giving you your props, you should always be ready to discharge your firearm, and careful aim never hurts! Instructor Puff Daddy Combs trains campers to fire their weapons at a moment's notice, and, if necessary, to ditch the piece and flee the scene of the shooting. Special Guest Lecturer Ol' Dirty Bastard may be on hand to provide tips on what to do if the target is a police officer who shoots back (rehab schedule permitting).

Our Typical Daily Schedule

3:30pm – Wakeup

If you want to sleep later, we won't hold you to this.

4pm – Brunch

Usually just caviar and blow, but if you'd like, our chef will happily rustle you up an omelet to go with the blow.

6pm – Nap Time

Many campers choose instead to use this time to be pleased by the domestic help.

7pm – Cookout Dinner

Hot dogs, potato salad, corn on the cob and Dom Perignon.

8pm – Campfire Discussion & Singalong

First, we debate topics such as MP3s, sampling and Jennifer Lopez's booty. Then we begin our singalong with the Sean "Puffy" Combs-penned Biggie, Row the Boat Ashore, continue with Puff (The Magic Gangsta) and close with the classic On Top of Madonna.

9:30pm – Evening Snack

Cookies and Sculch

10pm – Free Time

You may read Rolling Stone, Hits or Vibe quietly if you like, but this is the time most campers spend shooting up.

11pm – Lights Out

Just kidding.

3am – Head Count

Purely for the purpose of finding out if anyone's had an overdose.

Homesickness

In the midst of all that Camp Grammy has to offer, most campers don't miss their previous lives as awkward, virginal social misfits. For the rare occasions when campers do suffer from pangs of regret for the honest, homespun values of family life, we've discovered the perfect remedy: a speedball and a pair of D-cups nestled in their face.

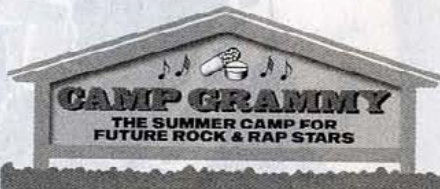

What to Pack*

- Rolling papers
- Clean needles
- A spoon
- Assless pants
- Rings you would like attached to your nipples
- Whips
- Chains
- Handcuffs
- Your musical instrument (optional)

*Please do not bring groupies. Camp Grammy will provide them for you.
